

Metropolitan University Prague, Foreign Language Department and Society for Language and Languages (Gesellschaft für Sprache und Sprachen – GeSuS) kindly invite you to the anniversary of the 20th Annual Conference in Prague

20th Linguistic Days in Prague, Czech Republic from 26th to 28th May 2011

This year, Metropolitan University Prague and its Foreign Language Department are honoured to organise the 20th annual conference for GeSuS. It is a conference with a long-standing tradition.

GeSuS is a non-profit organisation, which, among others, puts emphasis on supporting scientific exchange of opinions in the area of linguistics, not only with regard to general language, but also to specific language phenomena.

This invitation is open to all those who are involved with languages on a scientific level regardless of their place of work and whether or not they are a student or a university lecturer. It is intended for all who are involved with such concerns.

All presentations, which specifically deal with linguistics, are very welcome at this conference. Apart from that you will also have a chance to meet your colleagues socially and enjoy a cultural event. A part of the conference is a guided tour of Prague on 26th May 2011 and a reception on 27th May 2011.

The following workshops have been planned:

1. Language Didactics (Martin Lachout)
2. Literature and Literature Didactics (Naďa Heinrichová)
3. Translation and Interpretation – Theory, Practice and Didactics (Lenka Pánková)
4. Verbal Semantics (Volkmar Engerer)
5. (Comparative) Syntax and Morphology (Peter Ůhl)
6. The Category of Case (Béla Brogyanyi)
7. Multidisciplinary Phonetics (Livia Adamcova)
8. Cognitive Linguistics (Beata Kasperowicz-Stařka)
9. Lexicology and Dialectology (Klaus Geyer)
10. Theolinguistics (Albrecht Greule & Elzbieta Kucharska-Dreiss)
11. Language and Law (Bianca Wieland)
12. Persuasive Communication (Marina Iakushevich & Astrid Arning)
